

FOR W. J. BRYAN

Demonstrations Equals That of the Chicago Eight Years Ago.

Parkerites Become Frightened and Start Counter Demonstration for Their Choice.

By Western Union;

The convention was called to order at 10:12 this morning and after prayer, the committee on credentials was heard and other matters of minor importance, after which the convention took up the discussion of the rights of Porto Rico and the Philippines to representation, after which the convention adjourned until 2:00 p. m.

The convention was again called to order at 2:30 this afternoon. Bryan's entrance was the result of a great demonstration and prolonged applause. Band plays "My Maryland," and crowd joins in chorus.

The greeting accorded Bryan is something awful and the cheering given him equaled his reception at Chicago eight years ago. Bryan takes the platform amid continued cheers, shakes hands with daughter of Alton B. Parker. More applause followed and standard of many States are carried to Bryan.

At this juncture, the Parker people fearful of the results of this clamor for the "Peerless Leader," which they had regarded just a few hours ago as a "dead one," began a counter demonstration.

The Georgia delegation waved Parker banners and was followed by other States, and Parker banners were carried to the platform. South Carolina nailed their banner to the Parker banner on the stage amid much applause.

Bryan took the floor at 3:43 p. m. to present the minority report of the committee on credentials and commanded undivided attention. It is thought the minority report will be adopted.

St. Louis, July 7.—The Democratic national convention is this afternoon engaged in making up a platform of principles upon which the party will wage its fight during the campaign thus opening. That there will be a contest over the adoption of certain planks agreed to in the meeting of the resolutions committee this morning is certain, and much oratory will result. Mr. Bryan will lead his forces in the debate on the floor, while Senator Bailey of Texas will lead the forces of the "conservatives." To Mr. Bailey had fallen the choice of the executive committee for permanent chairman, but in view of his preparation for the platform debate, his declination to accept this important position was accepted and Hon. Champ Clark, congressman from Missouri, the only other man considered by the committee, was elevated to the chairmanship. Mr. Clark's address on opening the convention today was given the most earnest attention.

BRYAN SNUBBED

"Peerless Leader" Unnoticed and Cleveland Cheered to the Echo.

St. Louis, July 7.—In a session lasting two hours and fifty minutes yesterday afternoon, one striking incident overshadowed all other proceedings. That was the enthusiastic and prolonged cheering which greeted the name of Grover Cleveland. While the outburst which greeted the name of the former Democratic president before its last syllable had fallen from the lips of the temporary chairman was noteworthy in itself, it was magnified by contrast with the greetings accorded the actual persons of men who stood for all that has been opposed to Mr. Cleveland within the party during the last eight years.

James K. Jones of Arkansas, chairman of the national committee, went onto the platform and took his seat unnoticed. Practically no greeting was given him when he faced the convention with gavel in hand. There were other stalwart lieutenants of the Nebraska who entered the hall unacclaimed, and lastly Mr. Bryan himself, who, for the first time during the two national campaigns, was greeted with silence. Eight minutes after the gavel fell the twice-named candidate of his party passed in the main entrance and sought his seat unheralded and unheeded. A few moments later he arose and pushed his way to a seat nearer the aisle, where, standing a moment to give greetings to friends, he was caught sight of and applauded. But the measure of applause was but a ripple when compared to the storm called forth by Cleveland's name.

Listening attentively to the Democratic doctrine laid down by Temporary Chairman Williams, the conservatives found occasion for the first demonstration when reference was made to the record of former President Cleveland. All the shackled party interest which had lain dormant through two national campaigns was released as by the touch of a trigger. The name of Cleveland was echoed from a thousand throats. Hats, handkerchiefs, fans and arms were waved, delegates and spectators stood on their chairs, and the last semblance of order was turned into confusion which convention officials were powerless to subdue.

While the outburst was at its height, Mr. Bryan's following attempted to convert the demonstration into applause for their leader. The name of Bryan was yelled lustily, but in vain. Shouts of "Grover" and "Cleveland" were renewed and the Bryan following was hissed. The greatest significance was attached to the showing made by the conservatives. Their absolute control of the convention is no longer doubted, even by those who have heretofore declined to be convinced. The nomination of Judge Parker for president is assured beyond any possibility of defeat.

The great Coliseum where the convention is being held, is admirably adapted to accommodate the surging crowds which pressed for admission as soon as the doors were opened. Before 11 o'clock the spectators' seats began to fill, although the space on the floor allotted to the delegates and their alternates remained barren until noon, when the session was called to order. That the duty of decorating the immense hall was entrusted to skilled hands was apparent from the first glimpse of the interior. The general effect is a mammoth arched canopy of buff, ribbed and fringed in white, with walls formed of alternate strips of red, white and blue. The balconies were dressed in white bunting, gracefully caught up every few yards. Medallions bearing the coats of arms of the states are placed about the balconies at regular intervals, but the only flowers used were in the setting of the platform. One of the crowning features is an immense furred flag which is pendant from the center of the roof. The flag will be dropped into prominence when a nomination for president has been made. The standards locating the state delegations are among the striking decorations. Painted, ringed and lettered after the manner of old-fashioned railroad semaphores, the standards extend several feet above the heads of the delegates. They are fastened to rods of iron which are firmly fastened to the floor so that they cannot be dislodged in moments of enthusiasm. By the time a majority of the delegates had arrived at the Coliseum every breath of cool outside air had been absorbed. Fans were waving vigorously in all parts of the hall. Coats were not long in coming off, collars and ties were loosened and the picture was that of a shirt-sleeve convention. The day was oppressively warm outside and in the hall was uncomfortable to the extreme. Windows but half opened and the roof ventilators had been sacrificed in beautifying the interior of the hall.

Exactly on the hour of noon Chairman Jones called the convention to order. The call was read and prayer delivered. A committee was named to escort Mr. Williams to the platform to assume the temporary chairmanship. Then it occurred to Chairman Jones that the band stationed under the roof opposite the platform had not been heard. He looked about for the signal station, but its location had been lost amid the decorations. Officials gesticulated and shouted to the leader, but to no purpose. He was waiting for a bell signal that never came. A courier was sent to the bandstand, but by the time he had arrived Mr. Williams had started to speak. Consequently not a note of music was heard in the hall until a short time before the convention adjourned for the day.

Equal Suffrage For Women

By Ex-Congressman J. J. LENTZ of Ohio

DO not consider the world in a position to make much more progress until it allows THE HEARTS OF OUR WOMEN TO BE VOTED at the ballot box. Thousands of years of attempts at civilization under all the different forms of government imaginable have but demonstrated the everlasting permanency of greed and selfishness in men, and upon these rocks the ship of state has repeatedly gone down. Universal education and universal liberty have never yet been tried.

I am not only willing but exceedingly anxious that the intelligence of the woman's brain, the affection of her heart and THE MORAL PURPOSE OF THE HOME shall have full and wide open opportunity to express itself at the ballot box.

Commercialism is the curse of the present tendency in America, and I see nothing to check this except the influence of women. But, laying aside any economic or philosophic consideration of the right of franchise, it is enough for me to know that there are women who DESIRE to vote, and I believe in doing unto others as you would be done by.

I believe in equal and exact justice to all, special privileges to none, and I do not recognize the shameful doctrine that for some imaginary reason women should not have the right to vote the same as the men.

I think the highest womanhood, like the highest manhood, is dependent upon the development of the BRAIN AND HEART.

IF THE BEST GOVERNMENT IS MADE UP OF THE BEST HOMES, THEN WE SHALL ATTAIN THE HIGHEST FORM OF GOOD GOVERNMENT WHEN THE WOMAN, WHO IS THE FOUNDATION OF THE HOME, UNDERSTANDS HER CIVIL RIGHTS AND IS IN FULL POSSESSION OF EVERY ONE OF THEM, INCLUDING THE GOD GIVEN RIGHT OF VOTING HER HEART AND BRAIN AT THE BALLOT BOX.

BANKRUPTCY

Proceedings Have Been Instituted in Federal Courts.

And the Sterling Buggy Company Passes out of Control of the Receiver.

On petition of the First National Bank of Indianapolis and a number of other creditors the Sterling Buggy Company of this city was thrown into bankruptcy and the matter will be heard before Judge Anderson of the Federal court on the 21st of the month.

The matters were placed in the hands of the Union Trust company temporarily and they sent George Buskirk, an attorney, who has charge of the probate department of the company and two other gentlemen down here last night who took charge of the plant.

This of course relieves Receiver Thomas, who for a time, at least, has no further connection with the plant. It is not known what the next move will be in this matter, nor will there be any definite action until after the hearing on the 21st.

The Indianapolis attorneys said that the reason for this step was the granting by Judge Morris, to the Fort Wayne company, the right to remove property which they claimed as theirs, but which had become mixed with other property and to which they had no claim. They said, too, that such agreements as the one claimed to have been held by the Ft. Wayne company had been held invalid a number of times by the courts.

Many of the creditors had hoped to keep the business from going into bankruptcy, inasmuch as the cost will be much greater and as a result the creditors will receive a smaller per cent. in their claims.

At Six O'clock Dinner.

The Ladies Band of Workers of the Presbyterian church gave a six o'clock dinner on the lawn at William Helm's on Third street last night, to which all the members and their husbands were invited. It was the last meeting of the year or until the beginning of their new year in September and was largely attended. Mr. Helm invited them to use his lawn and home and furnished the ice cream for the occasion. A most enjoyable time is reported.

BETS ON ROOSEVELT

Anti-Parker Democrats Bet on Hearst and Against Parker.

Other Notes.

Hearst's paper, the Chicago American, Wednesday morning announced a proposition for a $50,000 bet that Parker, if nominated, will not be elected, and the same amount that Hearst, if nominated, will be elected. This was a proposition in the lobby of the Jefferson hotel made by Col. James Thompson Dougane, of New York, a capitalist mine owner.

Harmon, of Ohio, declined everything, including the vice presidency. This seems to conclude the Parker game with success. However, a combination was organizing yesterday to hold more than one-third of the delegates. Bryan seems to be beaten, but he is a man of resources. A feature of this delegation is the abundance of millionaires. There are ten delegates decorated with the million-dollar mark. New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Missouri and Texas are represented, and they seem to confide in Parker.

Hope to Tire Remonstrators.

In the hope of tiring the remonstrators so that they will give up their fight against applicants for liquor license, all who signed the blanket remonstrance at Knightstown will be summoned as witnesses in a case to come up at New Castle July 18. Several thousand dollars have already been spent by the temperance advocates and they announce that they have no intention to cease in their efforts to rid the community of saloons. This is the eighteenth application since the signing of the remonstrance and sixteen have been defeated. Both parties seem inclined to fight it out.

Central League After Them.

"Windy" Morgan today received a telegram from the manager of the Grand Rapids team in the Central league, asking him to report at once to catch on that team. He called the manager up over phone and talked to him concerning terms and he replied that he would be there to attend tomorrow's game and to see the team play. It is said that the Grand Rapids team needs strengthening and are looking for new material and may take some other players from this or other good amateur teams over the State. We are glad to see our boys do better, but their withdrawal from our team, of course, weakens it and makes Manager Geraghty look around for new material.

STATE MEET

Of The Patriotic Sons of America Will be Held in This City.

Preparations are Now Being Made for the Reception of the Delegates and for Their Entertainment.

The State meeting of the P. O. S. of A. will be held at Rushville on August 9th, and preparations are being made by the local council for the event.

Inasmuch as a large number of the delegates and others who attend the State meeting are expecting to arrive the day before, the local council will have an interesting and important meeting the night before the State meeting, when degree work will be conferred.

The team of the Indianapolis council, probably the best in the State, composed of sixty-five members will be here and confer the degrees. A banquet will probably follow and a grand meeting is expected.

The State council consists of about ninety delegates from the thirteen councils of this State, and under the rule that all past presidents are allowed to vote on all questions, it can be safely estimated that there will be about 135 votes in the State meeting.

W. O. Headlee and T. W. Felts, of this city, represent the local council and W. H. Young and Albert Morrill are the alternates. Isaac Miller, of the local lodge, is a State officer, having been elected State Master of Forms.

One a week from Friday, July 15th, O. C. Mundy, of Indianapolis, State President; Sam. D. Sims, of Crawfordsville, State secretary, and H. R. Mitchell, of Indianapolis, State Treasurer, will come to this city, and accompanied by Mr. Miller, of this city master of forms, will proceed to Glenwood, where with J. F. Mapes, who is State vice president, will hold an executive meeting and formulate some plans for the State meeting. The State officers will also attend the meeting of Glenwood Camp No. 2, which will be held on that night.

ESTABLISHED

Is Grade Along Streets Traversed by Interurban Road.

The council held an adjourned meeting last night and all members were present, except Caldwell.

Ordinance No. 152, establishing the grade on Third, Morgan and Seventh streets, where it is traversed by the interurban road was adopted under suspension of rules.

The plan of a bridge to be built by the interurban road over Dodge's branch on Seventh street was submitted and approved. It is to be built of concrete abutments, with steel eye beams and plank floor and will be fifteen feet ten inches between the abutments.

The condition of the sewers was represented to the council to be in a filthy condition and foul smelling and not only a nuisance, but a menace to the public health and it was referred to the committee on streets and alleys with power to act, and it was suggested that they have a man go through them to ascertain their condition and the matter will be attended to at once.

The session of the council only lasted about thirty minutes.

Good Time by Oldsmobile.

Dr. Dean yesterday took rural carrier Gilbert Boys over his route, No. 10, in an Oldsmobile and made the trip, 26 miles, in two hours and twenty minutes, making 94 stops out of 96. This is very fast time and considering the number of stops made is as good as has been made.

A Place for Bryan.

The action of State Chairman Newlin of the Prohibition party in securing Tomlinson Hall in Indianapolis for July 20, 21 and 22, is now believed to be due to the threatened bolt of Bryan at St. Louis. The News today says that Swallow who was nominated for the presidency last week, will withdraw and that at the new convention to be held Bryan will be named if he will accept. Newlin admits correspondence with Bryan, but refuses to make a statement before Friday. Bryan who has never yet turned down a nomination of any kind will in all probability accept.

AT GREENSBURG

Ball Team Plays Reds of That Place Today.

The local ball team went to Greensburg today to play the Reds of that city.

A special train left about 1:15 this afternoon, with about 175 fans, the team and the Arlington band.

The line-up was practically the same as yesterday, except that Tompkins was sent in to pitch.

The expected happened at Greensburg this afternoon and Rushville team, whose pitching staff has been materially weakened went down in defeat by a score of 9 to 1. Tompkins is one of the best ball players on the team, but has not pitched enough to go against a strong aggregation like Greensburgs. Neither did he receive the best support.

Louisville and Milwaukee played a fifteen inning game yesterday.

Fisher, the farmer boy, who pitched for Rushville yesterday, is a great pitcher and ought to play regularly with the team.

Fisher now holds the strikeout record for the season on the home grounds.

Reeb, also a farmer, is pitching this week every day—pitching hay—and will return to this city in a week or ten days and resume his place on the team.

The United States Senate will have among its members when Philander Chase Knox joins it, five farms Cabinet officers. They are: Senators Teller, of Colorado, who was Secretary of the Interior under President Arthur; Alger, Secretary under President McKinley; Proctor Secretary of War under President Harrison, and Elkins, who was Secretary of war under President Harrison.

 a township ticket.

COMMITTEE.

From all reports the "Silent One" is in the saddle at "Sen Louey."

There was no cheering for Grover four years ago at Kansas City—they had not forgotten the soup houses then.

Speaking of enthusiasm, there was no blood spilt at Chicago, which would indicate that in that brand of enthusiasm at least, they were excelled by the St. Louis crowd.

The burial of the "Peerless Leader" was accomplished without incident, as was the resurrection of "Grover the Great,"—unless perhaps the fight which took place yesterday when Bryan entered the hall, which it required nine policemen to put down might be called an incident.

It becomes more and more evident as the Democratic convention progresses that Parker was nominated by the scare which resulted from Hearst's candidacy. Many Democrats who had been against Parker from the very beginning received him with open arms to escape Hearst.

The Republicans of this country never treated William J. Bryan as coolly as his one time admirers and supporters now do. It is reported that Stokes Jackson of Greenfield, at one time his bosom friend has not "had time" since he arrived at St.
 Louis to call on the dethroned King.

James L. Keach, the Indianapolis man who has been closely identified with the Indiana Democracy's organization was interviewed by a reporter Wednesday and said:

"I came to this convention for Grover Cleveland, but have switched to Parker. I am for Parker for three reasons: First because he has promised to make Tom Taggart national chairman; secondly, because David B.
 Hill has agreed to furnish all of the money necessary to buy up all Indiana

Democrats, and, in the third place, because State Chairman O'Brien, who voted against Sunday baseball because his wife told him to, says that Parker is the man for us to support. Under the circumstances I do not see how I can be for anybody else except Parker.
 You can tell the people that it is now me for Parker."

UNDER THE OAKS

Many Indiana Republicans Attend the Celebration at Jackson.

Indianapolis, July 7.—Many prominent Indiana Republicans participated yesterday in the celebration of the party's golden jubilee "Under the Oaks" at Jackson, Mich., where the Republican party was organized fifty years ago. Senator Fairbanks was one of the speakers, as were Secretary of State Hay, who was Abraham Lincoln's private secretary; Speaker Cannon, and others of national reputation.
 It was at Jackson, in a grove of oak trees, that the first state convention acting under the name "Republican" was held on the 6th of July fifty years ago.

Continuing his reports of crop conditions, State Statistician Johnson gives out the further good news that Indiana's potato crop this year will be a record breaker. He says the crop all over the state is in finer condition than at the same date for years past, and that only unprecedented drouth can prevent the farmers of the state from harvesting a crop of the tubers that for size and quality will break all records for the state. Mr. Johnson's corn report is still favorable, and he says that, now that the nights are growing warmer, nothing remains but a continuation of existing conditions to make the corn crop fully up to the average.

President Hugh McGowan of the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal company, in a statement issued yesterday, estimates that the interurban roads of Indiana handled during the last year two and a half millions of passengers in and out of Indianapolis, and says he believes this number will be increased during the present year to three and a half millions. Mr. McGowan goes further in his estimate, saying that it is his belief that next year the interurbans will handle 4,500,000 passengers, as people in the country and in the smaller towns are every year making freer use of the electric lines all over the state.

Many complaints are coming to State Game and Fish Commissioner Sweeney to the effect that sportsmen, farmers and others all over the state are violating the game law by killing squirrels out of season. The last legislation amended the game laws and among other amendments was one making the open season for squirrels to begin Aug. 1 instead of June 1, as it was formerly. Hundreds of squirrel hunters are not aware of this, and the killing of young squirrels is causing great complaint. Orders have been issued to deputy wardens to put a stop to the illegal hunting.

The conviction is growing among Republicans that the Democrats of Indiana will not be given both the vice presidential candidate and the national chairman, and that the chances are about even that they will get neither.
 It is pointed out that the Taggart forces are not even making claims at present, and that no great amount of importance seems to attach to the Kern boom for the second place on the ticket. With the state thus snubbed at the hands of the Democracy, it is affirmed, there will not be the slightest trouble in keeping it in line next fall.

D. M. Parry, who has just returned from New York, confirms the report that the Illinois Central railroad has secured control of the Indianapolis Southern road and will thus have a line into Indianapolis. Mr. Parry states that construction work on the Indianapolis Southern will be pushed as rapidly as possible, and says that Illinois Central trains will be running into the city over the new line early in 1905.

Ople Read, the novelist; Charles Eugene Banks, Madison Cawein and other writers of national repute are present at the convention of the Western Association of Writers at Winona this week. This year's meeting is the best in point of attendance that the association has held, and more writers whose names frequently appear in the tables of contents of the higher class of magazines are taking part in the proceedings. The meeting will be held all week.

Senator Beveridge, who has been visiting President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, has left for a vacation of several weeks in the depths of the Maine woods. The senator will not return to Indianapolis until after the hot weather of August.

Finally Got a Quorum.

Havana, July 7.—The house of representatives had a quorum yesterday for the first time since congress convened, April 4. The radical soldier members joined their comrades of the moderate party in bringing about this result.
 The house approved the credentials of thirteen new soldier congressmen.
 The moderates will control the organization of the house. Unless a compromise be effected, however, the deadlock will be resumed after the passing of the soldiers' pay bill and other urgent legislation.

"UNDER THE OAKS"

Republican Party Celebrates Semi-Centennial of Its Organization.

SIGNIFICANT MEETING

In a Beautiful Oak Grove at Jackson, Mich., Scenes of Fifty Years Ago Were Recalled.

Among Those Present Were a Number Who Voted For Nominee of First Convention.

Jackson, Mich., July 7.—Nearly 10, 000 people assembled in a picturesque oak grove in the outskirts of this city to celebrate the semi-centennial anniversary of the birth of the Republican party. It was in a smaller oak grove at the opposite end of Jackson, that fifty years ago yesterday the first state convention that was held under the name of "Republican" took place.
 Here the initial Republican state ticket was then placed in nomination.

Secretary of State John Hay was the orator of the day and United States Senator Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana, Republican candidate for vice president, and Speaker Joseph G. Cannon of the national house of representatives, were also present and delivered addresses. On the platform was seated a representative delegation of the Republican leaders of this state, headed by United States Senators R. A.
 Alger and J. C. Burrows. Senator Burrows presided over the afternoon session and Senator Alger was the last speaker of the afternoon.

Behind the speaker's platform rose a wall of bright-colored bunting with immense pictures of John C. Fremont, the first Republican nominee for president, and Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican to occupy the White House, fastened to it. Straight ahead and to the right and left over the heads of the assembled multitude towered scores of splendid oaks. In the front rows of the audience were nearly a thousand men who voted for John C. Fremont for president, some of whom had participated in the original "under the oaks" convention fifty years ago. To this venerable company special reverence was paid, and when two of their number, in their enthusiasm, climbed high up among the branches of two oaks to improve their view, the audience was frantic with approval and delight.

The city of Jackson was in holiday attire, with throngs of visitors constantly passing up and down the streets.

MANY CANDIDATES

The "Running Mate" Question Excites
 but Little Interest.

St. Louis, July 7.—The vice presidential situation was tersely stated by Major G. V. Menzies of Indiana, himself a vice presidential possibility, when he said: "We will finish the nomination of a presidential candidate before we go to war on the ticket. Like the lamented father of the immortal Huckleberry Finn, our motto is 'meat first, spoon vittles afterwards.'"

There was enough of gossip to satisfy, but aside from the movement in behalf of George Turner of Washington, there was no well-defined vice presidential boom. The Indiana delegation was divided in sentiment as to what its position would be if the nomination were to go to that state. John W. Kern and B. F. Shively were being mildly booed by the Indians, as was also Major G. V. Menzies. In addition to the men already named there was in the various delegations talk of Joseph W. Folk of Missouri, David Rose of Wisconsin, Samuel Alschuler, a former Illinois gubernatorial candidate, James B. Kilbourn of Ohio, Governor Dockery of Missouri, and Edward C. Wall of Wisconsin.

Children Caught on Crossing.

St. Louis Falls, S. D., July 7.—A passenger train on the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad last evening near Brandon, ran down a rig, killing three children of Lewis Skogne, instantly killing two boys aged eight and ten, and fatally injuring a girl aged about twelve.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

The conditions at Port Arthur are said to be unchanged.

 every week.

The Association of Orthodox Rabbis of the United States elected Rabbi A. G. Lasser, of Cincinnati, president.

The delegates from Porto Rico were permitted to vote at the Democratic national convention. The delegates from the Philippines were given six votes.

At Wewoka, I. T., Henry Stewart shot and instantly killed his wife, Jim Gaines and Leouar Wilson. Jealousy is supposed to be the cause. All are colored.

Another boat containing seventeen survivors of the Danish steamer Norge, which foundered off Rockall reef, were landed at Aberdeen, Scotland. 677 persons are still missing.

There are 788,000 school children in Indiana cording to the figures just compiled by Superintendent of Public Instruction F. A. Cotton.

Premier Balfour announces that under no circumstances will there be a dissolution of parliament this year unless he should fail to secure the support of his colleagues.

Glaude Dean, of Dunlap, Ia., was killed and four men were seriously injured and fourteen freight cars were burned in a Chicago & Northwestern freight wreck, at Woodbine, Ia.

It is incredible, but it seems to be true, that most of the Democratic leaders appear to be ignorant of the tariff history of Great Britain, which for so many years was held up to us as a paragon of fiscal and industrial wisdom. The truth is that England built up an enormous trade under the policy of protection. When her commercial supremacy was established and when it was assumed that England could successfully compete with all other nations, free trade was considered. But not until the free traders of that country were led to believe that other countries would adopt their policy did they themselves adopt it. But the drift of the world since then has been in the other direction, and even England's experience has not been satisfactory.
 So now, as John Sharp William, the Democratic leader in the house, has publicly declared, even free trade Britain is on the way back to protection.
 After centuries of success under protection and a half century of disappointment under free trade, Great Britain prepares to join the other nations in the drift toward protection. Here is a fact of overwhelming significance that everybody should keep in mind all the while if he is to have a grasp of the tariff question that he needs in order to vote intelligently on the subject. Of course the leaders of the Democratic party are not all willing to admit this, and there are a good many reasons to believe that some of them do not even know the facts in the case, incredible as this ignorance seems to be.

Parole for Elias Owen.

Brazil, Ind., July 7.—Governor Durbin has paroled Elias Owen, who has been serving a life sentence in the prison for the murder of James Biggs, June 23, 1893, in the streets of Clay City, this county. He was sentenced in the circuit court here Jan. 24, 1894.

Gyangtso, Tibet, July 7.—The fort held by 7,000 Tibetans was captured by a mere handful of British and Indian soldiers.

Fierce Bayonet Contest.

General Kuroki's Headquarters in the Field, via Fusan, July 7.—On July 4 two battalions of Russians attempted to break through the Japanese outposts at the northern entrance of Mo Tien pass. Before daylight they surrounded an outpost of eighty men at the foot of a hill and charged the trench above. A bloody encounter with bayonets, lasting a quarter of an hour, ensued. The Russians attacked the trench three times, but were driven up the valley by a Japanese reinforcement, leaving many dead and wounded. An observer saw fifty lying in front of the trench.

Desperate Attempt Frustrated.

Tien Tsin, July 7.—Advices have been received that at 9 p. m. on last Sunday four Japanese destroyers made a determined attempt to enter Port Arthur and attack the Russian fleet. The destroyers were discovered by the shore batteries. One of the destroyers was sunk under Golden hill, another under shore battery No. 22, and a third one had its funnel shot away.
 The fourth one succeeded in effecting a retreat.

Obituary.

Charles H. McKee, son of John McKee, was born in Noble township, Rush county, Indiana, November, 15, 1838, on the farm on which he resided at the time of his death. His entire life was spent here among us and is "an open book" known and read by all men.

He was married April 3, 1862 to Miss Catherine Simonson, of Franklin county, Indiana. To this union was born ten children, Ella, Carrie, Eliza, Hester A., Martha M., John F., Maggie M., William S., and Nellie G.

The deceased became a member of the M. E. church, at Bethany, at the age of fifteen under the ministry of W. W. Hibben and John F. Tevis. He lived a quiet Christian life and could be well known and appreciated only by those alone who had special opportunities to know his inner life.

He was appointed trustee of Noble township in October, 1895, and was re-elected Nov. 8, 1900, and became widely known because of his interest in school work.

Mr. McKee was a sufferer for more than a year, but bore it with great patience and battled bravely with the disease, by the help of faithful medical treatment and the most tender and careful nursing till Saturday night, July 2th, at 12 o'clock, when tired nature gave up the contest and he sank into his final sleep.

In his death his wife loses a loving husband, the children, a precious father and everyone a kind friend.

"Behind our lives the Weaver stands And works His wondrous will.
We leave it all in His wise hands
And trust His perfect skill.

"Should mystery enshroud His place
And our short sight be dim,
We will not try the whole to scan,
But leave each thread to him."

Funeral occurred Monday afternoon, July 4th, 1904. Burial at East Hill cemetery.

Rally Day and Roll Call Service.

Next Sunday at the Ben Davis Creek Christian church there will be a Rally Day and Roll Call service in the morning. It is earnestly hoped that every member of this congregation that is at all able to get to the church will be there to answer to his or her name at the roll call. There is no other purpose in this but to gather our members all together in a "family reunion," that we may enjoy a good day together in the house of the Lord. There will also be a basket dinner and a good social time for all. At the afternoon session the speakers will be Bro. W. F. Schrontz, of Orange, and Bro. A. W. Conner, of Indianapolis, the minister at the Fairview church.

This is enough to insure a mental and spiritual treat. Let me urge every member to be present at the morning service.

R. B. Givens, Minister.

RUMOR MONGERS BUSY

Situation at the Seat of War Not Very Clear.

Liao Yang, July 7.—A battle is proceeding twenty-five miles from here. Numbers of wounded are being brought in from the mountains. Evidently the engagement is a severe one. It is believed that the Japanese are continuing their advance with the object of cutting off Mukden.

St. Petersburg, July 7.—In the absence of official news from the seat of war the rumor mongers are busily at work. Reports of heavy fighting above Kal Chau have spread through the city, but they probably had their origin in foreign telegrams, as the war office is without information on the subject.

The situation in the zone of hostilities is not clear. Unofficial reports seem to indicate a lack of decision on the part of the Japanese, some of them saying that the Japanese are retreating and others that they are retreating.

The rains apparently have ceased for the moment, but there is a strong conviction that on the eve of torrential rains the Japanese will not risk a general advance from the mountains down on the plains, where in the event of defeat it would be almost impossible to extricate themselves. On the other hand, best-informed military circles believe that nothing but a superior force or imperative necessity as to transport conditions would compel the Japanese to relinquish passes which they obtained after so much laborious effort.

The siege of Port Arthur, the holding and fortifying of the mountain passes, a juncture of the forces of Generals Kuroki and Oku and possibly an extension of their lines to the west coast of Liao Tung in order to force out the Russians from New Chwang so that they may secure a new base there, is conservatively regarded as the Japanese program for the next two months.

There are 485 independent farmer or rural telephone lines in the United States.

England is still far in the lead in the number of sea-going ships; it has 7350, German coming next, with 1425.

Surveys are being made for a ditch, which will cause the waters of the Grand river, in Colorado, to flow over the continental Divide into the Cache la Poudre river. The canal will run for 10,000 feet up the mountain side, and is expected to divert 300,000 feet of water daily, for irrigation purposes.

UNANIMOUS SUPPORT

From All Synods of the Presbyterian Church Comes Help For This Forward Movement.

President Converse and Secretary Chapman Widely Indorsed For What They Have Done.

Winona Lake, July 7.—The general assembly's committee on evangelistic work for the Presbyterian church, of which John H. Converse is president and the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman secretary, has during the last year, accomplished wonders in evangelistic work, and the committee is receiving the unanimous support this year from all synods of the church. The committee was appointed at the meeting of the general assembly in Philadelphia, reappointed at New York and Los Angeles, one and two years later, and was again chosen for the work at Buffalo. The Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, the director of the Winona Bible conference, and the leading spirit in church work at Winona Lake, has had personal charge of the work, and to his untiring efforts is due, in a great measure, the success of the work.

JOHN H. CONVERSE.

BAD GANG COMES TO GRIEF

Henry Smith, a Member, Shot Dead by the Police.

Fort Wayne, Ind., July 7.—The long-expected climax to the unenviable notoriety achieved by the "East Side gang" came when Henry Smith, twenty-two years old, was shot through the heart and instantly killed by a police officer. The band of rowdies of which the dead man was a member for three years has terrorized the eastern part of the city near the corporate limits. Various assaults on citizens and policemen have been common, and not long ago Smith himself was only prevented from killing Patrolman Taylor White, whom he had prostrated, by the timely arrival of another policeman. Patrolmen John Greer and Charles Spiller were detailed to serve warrants on Smith and Andrew Beekner for assault and battery on an ice wagon driver. Both young men started to run, and the policemen began shooting to scare them into submission. The bullet that hit Smith in the back and passed through his heart is believed to have been fired by Patrolman Greer. Smith died within a hundred feet of his father's home. The patrolmen were nearly mobbed by friends and neighbors of the dead man before assistance came to their aid.

Must Serve Life Sentence.

Indianapolis, July 7.—Estell McGlathling, a colored youth of twenty-one, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree in criminal court and was sentenced to life imprisonment. McGlathling killed Timothy Stapleton, white, nearly three weeks ago, while the two were working in a section gang for the street railway company.

Pistols at Ten Paces.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., July 7.—James G. Henderson and Robert Riley, employed at Camp No. 2 of the Shutt Improvement company, adjusted an old grudge with pistols at ten paces, Henderson being wounded in the foot and Riley having an ear shot off. Both of the duellists fled before they could be arrested.

Athens Was Exonerated.

Marion, Ind., July 7.—The coroner holds that Margaret Terrell committed suicide and has ordered the release of Everett Athens of Summitville, who was with her at the time the young woman killed herself. The weapon used belonged to Athens and he has been fined $10 and costs for carrying it.

He Took a Fatal Chance.

Charlestown, Ind., July 7.—Pope Woods, a Union veteran soldier of Westpoint, Wyo., came here to appear before the board of pension examiners. Fearful that the train would not stop at the station he jumped off and was instantly killed. Mr. Woods was sixty-five years old.

Ben. Smith says that on the night of the attempted burglary at his home he only had a dollar and twenty cents in money in the house and no other articles of value and that the burglar might have come out in debt.

Clever Detective Work.
A distinguished surgeon, who was also a detective in embryo, was called to perform an operation upon a man who had been shot by an unknown assassin. The position of the man and the mystery of the shooting rendered the case notorious. The man was unconscious at the time of the operation, and nothing could be obtained from him. When the doctor examined the wound, he said to his assistant: "A pistol has been fired at him by a person who is left handed." While he was explaining the reasons for his conclusion Mr. —'s partner, a Mr. X., entered the room. Something about his manner attracted the attention of the eminent surgeon, and he whispered to his colleague: "If that man were left handed, I should at once suspect him of the crime." The next instant he turned to X. and said: "Will you kindly hand me that lint?" X. did so, using his left hand. The man died. X. was accused of the murder and upon being tried and condemned confessed his guilt.

Enforced Church Attendance.
In the reign of Edward VI. an act was passed which provided that every one "shall diligently and faithfully, having no lawful or reasonable excuse to be absent, endeavor themselves to their parish church or chapel accustomed, or, upon reasonable let, to some usual place where common prayer shall be used—on Sundays and holidays—upon penalty of forfeiting for every nonattendance 12 pence, to be levied by the church wardens to the use of the poor." As the years rolled on, however, the penalties for nonattendance became more and more severe, until in Elizabeth's reign such harsh legislation as the following was passed: "All persons who do not go to church or chapel or other places where common prayer is said according to the act of uniformity shall forfeit £20 per month to the queen, being thereof lawfully convict, and suffer imprisonment until paid."

An Eastern Tale.
"In many cases," says Sir John Lubbock, "religious differences are mainly verbal. There is an eastern tale of four men—an Arab, a Persian, a Turk and a Greek—who agreed to club together for an evening meal, but when they had done so they quarreled as to what it should be. The Turk proposed azum, the Arab aneb, the Persian anghur, while the Greek insisted on staphyllon. While they were disputing—

"Before their eyes did pass, Laden with grapes, a gardener's ass. Sprang to his feet each man and showed, With eager hand, that purple load. 'See azum,' said that Turk. 'And see Anghur,' the Persian. 'What should be Better?' 'Nay, aneb, aneb 'tis.' The Arab cried. The Greek said, 'This Is my staphyllon.' Then they bought Their grapes in peace. Hence, be ye taught."
